

I'm appalled at Sinclair's decision to preempt programming to show an anti-Kerry documentary. This is exactly what happens with big conglomerates with political agendas owning masses of TV stations. The FCC must not allow this kind of one-sided coverage of one of the cornerstones of our democracy--free press, balanced information.

Please withdraw the license of Sinclair, or make the reapplication for license more stringent.